BY GUS MALBERT. Bill Laval broke up the party, that's all there is to it. It was all planned right, and was going just as smoothly and pleasantly as a love-laden swain with the lady of his choice dangling to his heart arm. Then Bill slipped, and while he was slipping Bud Ryan sent two of his menials around the sluices for runs, while Jack Shenn prevented us from cashing but once.

Doctor Ayers was never in better fettle. Every ball he pitched had a hop on it, and those Tars were the most impotent bunch of hitters yet displayed on the home lot, unless it be our own lads. In the nine cantos spelled out a combination of five safe hits were made. Of this quintet, Richmond secured two and Norfolk three, but the hits didn't hurt. Of course, they played a small part in the Gondolff, ss.....

GOOBERS WIN OUT

Runs, Enough to Bring

Victory. Petersburg, Va., August 15.—In one of the most speciacular games ever seen in Petersburg, the Goobers won from the Shipbuilders this afternoon by a score of seven to six. While Richmond, who was in the box for the home team, suffered hard in the first linning, Barton, for the visitors, met his Waterloo in the ninth.

his Waterloo in the ninth.

The Shipbuilders went after Richmond in the first inning, when singles by Gondolfi, Haddow and Smith, a double by Tarleton, and a sacrifice by Quinn netted them four runs. After that Richmond settled down, and although the Shipbuilders added another run in the fourth and avoidable in the first state. though the Shipbullders added another run in the fourth and another in the fifth. It was not due to Richmond's twirling, but by errors behind him.

Petersburg scored her first run in the third linning on Laughlin's two-bagger and Richmond's single. In the fifth, sixth and eighth they scored again, and at the commencement of the ninth the score stood 6 to 4 in favor of the visitors. In the ninth, bedgepeth, batting for Damrau, struck of 0 0 0 4 0 out, Laughlin sent out a double and scored on Cooper's single, Cooper batting for Richmond. Cooper took third on Simmons's single, scoring on Keller's sacrifice fly. With the score a tic, Krepps hit over first, and by the by pitched ball—though the Shipbullders added another run in the fourth and another in the fifth, it was not due to Richmond's two-batter in the fifth, it was not due to Richmond's two-bagger and Richmond's single. In the fifth sixth and eighth they scored again, and at the commencement of the individual to the circuit. Fromme allowed but four hits. The Giants won the contest in the first, where singles netted four runs. The leaders added two more runs in the eighth on Fromme's double and Shafer's blow. This was the last appearance of the Season. The score:

Detroit, Mich., August 15 .- A world's

CUBS HAVE WALKOVER

It was a hard game for Ayers to lose. Likewise it would have been a abled the Tigers to walk away with the pitchers were going at top speed, throwing everything they had into their work. The one consoling feature is that neither of the runs made by Norfolk were earned, while the only one we had was driven across by legitimate methods. Bill Laval is sorry, and promises to make amends by winning both game to-day.

"Shirts" Blanton, star of the Ashland team of the Capital City League, will be given a chance to break into the professional ranks to-day. He will pitch one of the games against Norfolk this afternoon, Manager Griffin watched "Shirts" at work, and thinks that he has enough to win. The first game will begin at 2:30 o'clock, the usual hour for double-headers to start, and both Bob Rawn and Blanton will warm up,
It depends on what each shows as to the final selection for the curtain raiser,

It develops that Jack Bentley, the Washington left-hander, will come to Richmond only when Clark Griffith is advised that Ayers will be sent to Washington by the time the Climbers return from their present Western engagement. Griffith, after receiving reports from several of his agents who have been sent down here to look at the big fellow, is positive that Ayers can step right in now and win ball games. At any rate, he is anxious for the Hillsville lad to get into the ranks at the earliest possible moment. Jack Ryan, who represents Griffith, made this plain to Secretary Bradley at a conference between the two.

Griffith likewise sent the message that he might let another of his hurlers linish the season in Richmond if the local management would heed his request concerning Yancey Wyatt. While Steve is very proud of his big right-hander, and is anxious for him to stay to the finish, it is highly probable that should the Washington magnate agree to send two pitchers here that Ayers will be delivered at the end of the month. Young Harper, the left-hander, who took part in the game between the Senators and Detroit yesterday, is supposed to be the other pitcher.

Out of all this array of talent, Steve should surely be able to get hold of somebody who can win. Charlie Strain is still on the sick list, and will be until the latter part of next week. His sore shoulder is mending, but mending very slowly, and Bonesetter Henry announces that the youngster would be taking long chances to jump into the fray right now.

Not even Manager Griffin knows absolutely who will pitch the games today. It is probable that he will give all of the talent an opportunity to show. With Connic Bresnahan back in the game the team looks good enough from a defensive standpoint, but offensive the men are still in the slough of despond. Perhaps things will brighten to-day.

After apparently having Petersburg After apparently having Petersburg beaten yesterday, Newport News cracked and Buck Barton was hit hard enough in the last frame to lose. By the same token the Goobers advance another full game over Richmond. It's a long pull and a hard pull to overtake the Busch men at this stage, but Griff is still of the opinion that he can do it. He has eight more games with Petersburg and thinks that he will win all.

Irving Corbett, a Wilmington youngster, who pitched last season for Another pitcher was brought to light y vesterday, when Harry French, who is a teacher in the Massey Business College, applied to Griff for a chance. French pitched semi-pro ball in Rochester all of this season, and did some work in Elkins. W. Va., for a professional team in that town. He has participated in eighteen games up to the present time, and has lost but three. He is a right-hander, weighs 189 pounds, and looks the part. If he proves in condition, Steve may use him.

The woods are delivering pitchers at a surprising rate. There is Mike O'Brien, who worked for Macon, in the South Atlantic League, last season and part of this season. His record for 1912 is eleven won and six lost. Some question arose as to whether he was a free agent. This having been settled satisfactorily, he was wired transportation and told to report at once. He is expected to-day.
